emergence of several new factors inhibiting investment and industrial growth;

(b) if so, the reaction of Government thereto;

(c) whether it is a fact that three Union Ministers met separately the members of the committee of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry to explain to them the objectives of Government policies;

(d) if so, the names of the Ministers who met and the details of the talks they held; and

(e) the steps being taken by Government to allay the fears of the industry in this direction ?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND INTERNAL TRADE (SHRI DINESH SINGH) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Government are of the view that a favourable climate exists at present for new investments and growth. With rapidlyincreasing demand in various sectors, the liberalised policy in respect of licensing, particularly in the middle sector and with adequate credit availability besides infrastructure facilities, it is considered that necessary pre-requisites for a rapid rate of growth are adequately available in the economy.

(c) to (c). The Finance Minister, the Minister of Steel and Heavy Engineering and the Minister of Foreign Trade had occasion to meet representatives of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry. These Ministers and the Minister of Industrial Development and Internal Trade also met representatives of industry in other forums, such as the Central Advisory Council for Industries and other such bodies. In these meetings, the economic policies of Government were explained. It was emphasised that in the implementation of these policies, every effort would be made to accelerate the pace of industrial and economic growth as also meet the requirements of essentisl raw materials, particularly steel and to develop exports to the maximum extent possible. These measures would, however, have to be achieved consistently with the overall socioeconomic objectives as defined by the Government and as have been incorporated in the legislations such as the Monopolies and Restrictive Trade Practices Act.
